

Claim for Transitional Income Support and/or Climate Change Adjustment Program

When to use this form

This form is used to claim for Transitional Income Support Payment.

Transitional Income Support is an income support payment paid to primary producers in serious financial difficulty, to adapt to changing circumstances, including climate change. To be eligible for this payment farmers must meet income and asset tests. Total net assets must be less than $1,500,000 including farm assets and your principal residence, and the total value of liquid assets (immediate funds), including your partner's (if any), must be less than or equal to $20,000.

This form is also used to claim for the Climate Change Adjustment Program Advice and Training Grant. A Climate Change Adjustment Program Advice and Training Grant of up to $5,500 (GST included) is available to assist farmers and their partners to obtain professional advice and training to adjust and adapt to the impacts of climate change. To be eligible for this grant a farmer must have net assets of less than $1,500,000 including farm assets and the principal residence.

To be eligible for the Advice and Training Grant under the Climate Change Adjustment Program, farmers must meet income and asset tests.

Definition of a partner

For Centrelink purposes a person is considered to be your partner if you and the person are living together, or usually live together, and are:

- married, or
- in a registered relationship (opposite-sex or same-sex), or
- in a de facto relationship (opposite-sex or same-sex).

Centrelink considers a person to be in a de facto relationship from the time they commence living with another person as a member of a couple.

Centrelink recognises all couples, opposite-sex and same-sex.

For more information

What the farmer must do if claiming for:

Transitional Income Support and/or Climate Change Adjustment Program Advice and Training Grant

Step 1 Complete this claim form to test your eligibility.

Centrelink will advise you of the outcome of this claim.

Step 2 If eligible, a Farm Business Analysis and Financial Assessment form will need to be completed, including an assessment undertaken with a Prescribed Adviser to determine the viability of your farm enterprise.

Step 3 If eligible, a Climate Change Action Plan will need to be completed. Depending on your circumstances, you may be case managed by a Rural Financial Counsellor.

Step 4 Remaining funds from the Advice and Training Grant can be used to undertake relevant advice and/or training in activities to assist farmers to adjust to the impacts of climate change.

IMPORTANT: You must undertake a Farm Business Analysis and Financial Assessment within 12 weeks of Centrelink notifying you of your eligibility for assistance. You will then have up to 12 weeks to develop a Climate Change Action Plan.

If you do not undertake these steps and you are receiving payments under Transitional Income Support, your payments may be stopped.

Note: You will be notified by mail of the results of each step as you progress through this program.

Privacy and your personal information

Personal information is protected by law, including the Privacy Act 1988. The authority to collect this information is in the Climate Change Adjustment Program guidelines.

The information you provide in this form will be used to determine your eligibility, provide services to you and payments to third parties. This information may also be used to detect or prevent fraud and/or recover overpayments.

Centrelink may give some or all of your information to the Department of Human Services and the Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry for the purposes of evaluation and monitoring of services provided by Centrelink. This may also include providing information to a Rural Financial Counsellor.

Centrelink may disclose limited information (for example, income and assets) about you to other individuals, when your circumstances affect their entitlement to payments and services.

Centrelink may re-use your personal information contained in this claim form should an additional Exceptional Circumstances Drought Declaration be made for your area.

Limited personal information collected from you may be used to conduct customer research run by the Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry, the Department of Human Services, Centrelink or by research organisations on their behalf. Your participation in customer research is valued, however, if you do not wish to take part please call the Customer Relations number on Freecall™ 1800 050 004 (refer to the factsheet titled Market research and you for more information).

Centrelink can give your information to other persons, bodies or agencies without your permission in circumstances where Commonwealth legislation requires or authorises the disclosure. For example, Centrelink usually gives some or all of your information about income and taxation matters to the Australian Taxation Office and the Child Support Agency for their use.

In order to collect relevant immigration records, Centrelink will disclose information needed to identify you, and where applicable your partner and child(ren), to the Department of Immigration and Citizenship.

You can get more information from the factsheet titled Your Right to Privacy by going to our website at www.centrelink.gov.au or by calling Centrelink on 1800 050 585 to request a copy or you can visit your local Centrelink Customer Service Centre.

Proving your identity

Notes about proving your identity to Centrelink

As a Centrelink customer you are required to prove your identity when claiming a pension, benefit, allowance or service. You must establish your identity by providing original documents (not photocopies) from this approved list. Centrelink requires you to prove both your:

- Commencement of Identity (proof of your birth or arrival) in Australia, and
- use of this identity.

Note: The document you use to show your Commencement of Identity cannot also count towards the POINTS required for the payment or service claimed.

If you have any difficulty in obtaining or providing these documents, you should contact Centrelink as soon as possible.

If you have previously met the proof of identity requirements, and you are reclaiming within 52 weeks of receiving a Centrelink payment, fewer proof of identity documents may be required. If you think this applies to you, contact Centrelink as soon as possible.

Where possible, Centrelink will use the documents you provide to prove your age, residence, income and/or assets if that is relevant to the payment or service you are applying for.
